

I think that the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. It is a blessing to arrive home after work and not have the telephone start ringing as soon as you step your foot in the door. I have only received, at the most, three calls since signing on last January.

LEAVE OUR TELEPHONE PRIVACY LAWS ALONE!